

Beauty

Others grasp our faith, philosophy, and love based on what they experience through their senses.

The classroom is beautiful.

Desks have one task on them.

Floors are clear.

Projects in progress are orderly.

Furniture is intentionally placed.

Shelves are neatly kept.

The teacher is beautiful.

Posture, looks, and clothing show care.

Children are engaged with good humor.

Children are corrected with kindness.

The students are beautiful.

Their appearance shows appreciation of beauty.

Their speaking shows reverence for truth.

Their courtesy shows nurturing in goodness.

Their enthusiasm shows fostering of wonder.

Externals reveal internals. They show what we value.

Externals model internals. They show students how we live.

Externals teach internals. They form habits, consciences, and hearts.